Angels Gather Here- by Amy Robbins-Wilson

Sun comes up, birds I hear.
Morning angels gather here.

Wake my mind, my spirit too.
Be always with me in all I do.

In your arms and in your sight,
please change my thoughts to what is right

Day moves on, you are near.
Guardian angels gather here.

As I go throughout my day,
be always with me in every way

Guardian angels gather here.
Be with me from year to year

Sun goes down, stars appear.
Evening angels gather here.

Watch my baby as he sleeps.
Into his sweet dreams you peep.

Evening angels gather here.
Keep my darling from all fear.

I'll thank my angels.
When day is done.

For they'll have been with me from sun to sun
Every morn I wake to see smiling Angels greeting me.

Wondrous angels they gather here.
Be always with me and hear my prayer.
