O Waly, Waly

The water is wide
I cannot get o'er
And neither have I wings to fly
Oh go and get me some little boat
And both shall row, my love and I

Where love is planted, O, there it grows
It buds and blossoms, like some rose
It has a sweet and pleasant smell
No flower on earth, can it excel.

There is a ship sailing on the sea
It's loaded deep, as deep can be
But not as deep, as in love I am
I know not if I sink or if I swim.

The water is wide
I cannot get o'er
And neither have I wings to fly
Oh go and get me some little boat
And both shall row, my love and I
